

Cycle of Art, Science and Ecology
"Water key for Life"

From 25 April to 15 June 2008, at the Argentine Museum of Natural Science

Tierra de Exploradores opened on Wednesday 30 April at the Argentine Museum of Natural Science "Bernardino Rivadavia", the cycle of Art, Science and Ecology "Water key to Life.

Veronica Willenberg, president of Tierra de Exploradores, presented the exhibit with photographer Marcelo Gurruchaga, major of Biological Sciences specialized in Ecology Daniel Aldo Gomez and geologist José Selles Martínez, a member of the Department of Geological Sciences, FCEyN-UBA. Also attending authorities of MACN

We invite you to enjoy the exhibition "Water key for Life" until 15 June 2008, every day from 10 to 19 hours at Avenida Angel Gallardo 490, city of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

From left. to right.: Marcelo Gurruchaga, Veronica Willenberg, MACN Director Dr. Edgardo Romero, José Selles Martínez, Daniel Aldo Gomez and Gustavo Carrizo, Secretary of Museology of the MACN. Marcelo Gurruchaga,

INFORMATION ABOUT THE SAMPLE:

Art cycle, science and Ecology

"Water, key for life"

Water, key for life is an itinerant exhibition in which renowned artist and scientist promote a reflexion in times assigned by the change in climate" The video from Adriana Groisman and Stefan Oliva ("Our Trip to Antarctica") pictures from Marcelo Gurruchaga ("Antártida, a photographic trip") and Daniel Aldo Gómez ("Looking South") conform this joint exhibition that shows the view of art and science and suggests us to think together regarding this fundamental resource in which our planet depends on.

The scientific vision was given by geologist José Sellés Martínez member of the Department of Geological science of FCEyN-UBA and Science Biologist specialised in ecology Daniel Aldo Gomez both member of the Association Tierra de Exploradores.

The exhibit room "Nature in Art" of the Argentine Museum of Natural Science "Bernardino Rivadavia" is the area in which launches this proposal that will be presented in different cities, both in Argentina and abroad. The show will be open from Friday 25 April and 15 June 2008, every day from 10 to 19 hours. at Avenida Angel Gallardo 490, City of Buenos Aires, Argentina.